

Employment as a care worker

at Graf Recke Wohnen & Pflege
(residential & care)

With passion and competence
for our residents

Graf Recke Stiftung
das Leben meistern

Your tasks

You will support the people living with us in going about their daily lives. You will advise them, motivate them to take part in activities and leisure and carry out care and medical tasks.

You will be responsible for planning the care process and keeping care documentation, looking after medicine and risk management and implementing quality control.

Alongside care and support tasks, you will engage in organisation and administration.

What we offer

We provide you with remuneration to the federal standard rates for employees of church bodies (BAT-KF).

You will also receive an annual special payment, supplementary company pension benefits, six weeks' paid holiday and capital-forming benefits.

Alongside this, you will have access to our extensive internal further training programme to help build on your knowledge and abilities.

Are you from abroad?

Are you coming from abroad, and do you need help looking for an apartment, meeting with the authorities or handling aspects of daily life?

We are happy to support you and help to make moving to another country as easy as possible. You are welcome to contact us about this.

Residential & Care

Graf Recke Wohnen & Pflege (residential & care) offers care and support to older people and those in need in Düsseldorf and Hilden, both through residential and at-home care. Support is also provided in north Düsseldorf by the outpatient care service recke:mobil, day carers and the provider's own assisted living facility of the Quartiershaus Am Röttchen.

In our Dorotheenviertel Hilden, the Ahorn-Karree home gives special provision to those with severe dementia.

Our multi-talented teams and extensive internal training programme ensure our residents and clients can spend their later years in a place of comfort, safe in the certainty of receiving comprehensive care.

Whether it's intensive care or just a little assistance: we are always oriented by the individual needs of our residents and clients.

From outpatients to day patients and inpatients, from at-home care to residential support at our Düsseldorf and Hilden locations, assisted living or domiciliary care in our Quartierhaus, and including provision for people with dementia: just get in touch so we can find the right offer for you.
